Nelson Mandela

Nelson Mandela was born in 1918 in a remote African village.

He went on to become the most influential African leader in history. He studied law and politics and became the first black president of South Africa.

This BOOK tells us about Mandela’s journey from childhood to ANC activist. He fought for the rights of the black people. He was inspired by Gandhi’s ideas of non violence protest. The ANC was created to work for black rights. Apartheid was a system to control and separate blacks in their own land. Mandela’s role is ending Apartheid.

It goes on to describe Mandela’s release after 27 years in prison by the South African government.

Mandela won the Nobel Peace Prize and he signed a new constitution, it was the first time when all South Africans, blacks and whites, were allowed to vote.
